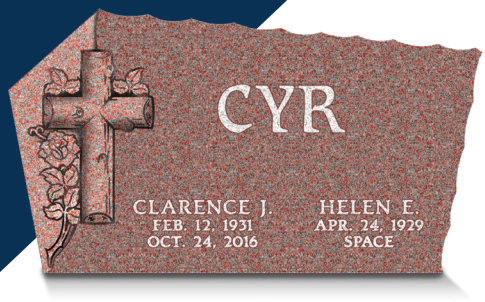
Our MONUMENTAL Spring Savings Event is your opportunity to prepare for the business ahead.



TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Pricing Structure: This promotion provides for an either/or offer. Customers may either receive a 15% discount off select in-stock items (1,500 lb. minimum purchase) OR may receive a 30% discount for etching and sandblasting of in-stock granite. Discounts are based on the Tecstone Granite 2023 Price Book – promotion cannot be combined or stacked with any other discount program.
2. Promotional Window: The program runs from April 1, 2023, through April 30, 2023. Previously placed orders are not applicable to this promotion.
3. Shipping / Delivery: Orders must either ship in April or ship no later than 14 days past the sales order creation date. For example, an order placed on April 2 can ship as late as April 30. If an order is placed on April 28, it can ship as late as May 12, 2023.
4. Order Minimums: The order minimum for the 15% granite special is 1,500 lbs.
5. Extended Payment Terms: Standard terms apply. Customers who fill out the "Qualified Payment Terms Extension form" and qualify can extend payment as late as June 9, 2023 or with approved credit applications will be offered standard terms. All other customers will be required to provide payment per their established payment terms which will include freight charges.
6. Credit Hold: Any customer on credit hold must bring their account current and receive approval from our Accounts department before an order may be processed for this promotional opportunity.
7. Art Approval: Customers opting for the 30% discount on etching and sandblasting must provide artwork at the time of the sales order creation and have their final approval returned back to Tecstone no later than 48 hours after receiving the final proof.
8. Etching and Sandblasting Discounts: Customers opting to participate in the etching and sandblasting discounts exclude any customer-supplied granite.
9. Price Matching: Our commitment to beat any competitive quote applies only to in-stock items with matching size and finish; it does not apply to special orders or any non-stock material. Competitive quotes must be dated within the past seven days and must be from a supplier within the contiguous United States.
